PROFILE

Sharon Angella Salmon Nalukenge has maintained a continental frenetic, multifaceted career as a Ugandan actress, mother, voice-over artist, commercial model, humanitarian, and entrepreneur stylized with an 'Outstanding' aura across Africa as a total boss.

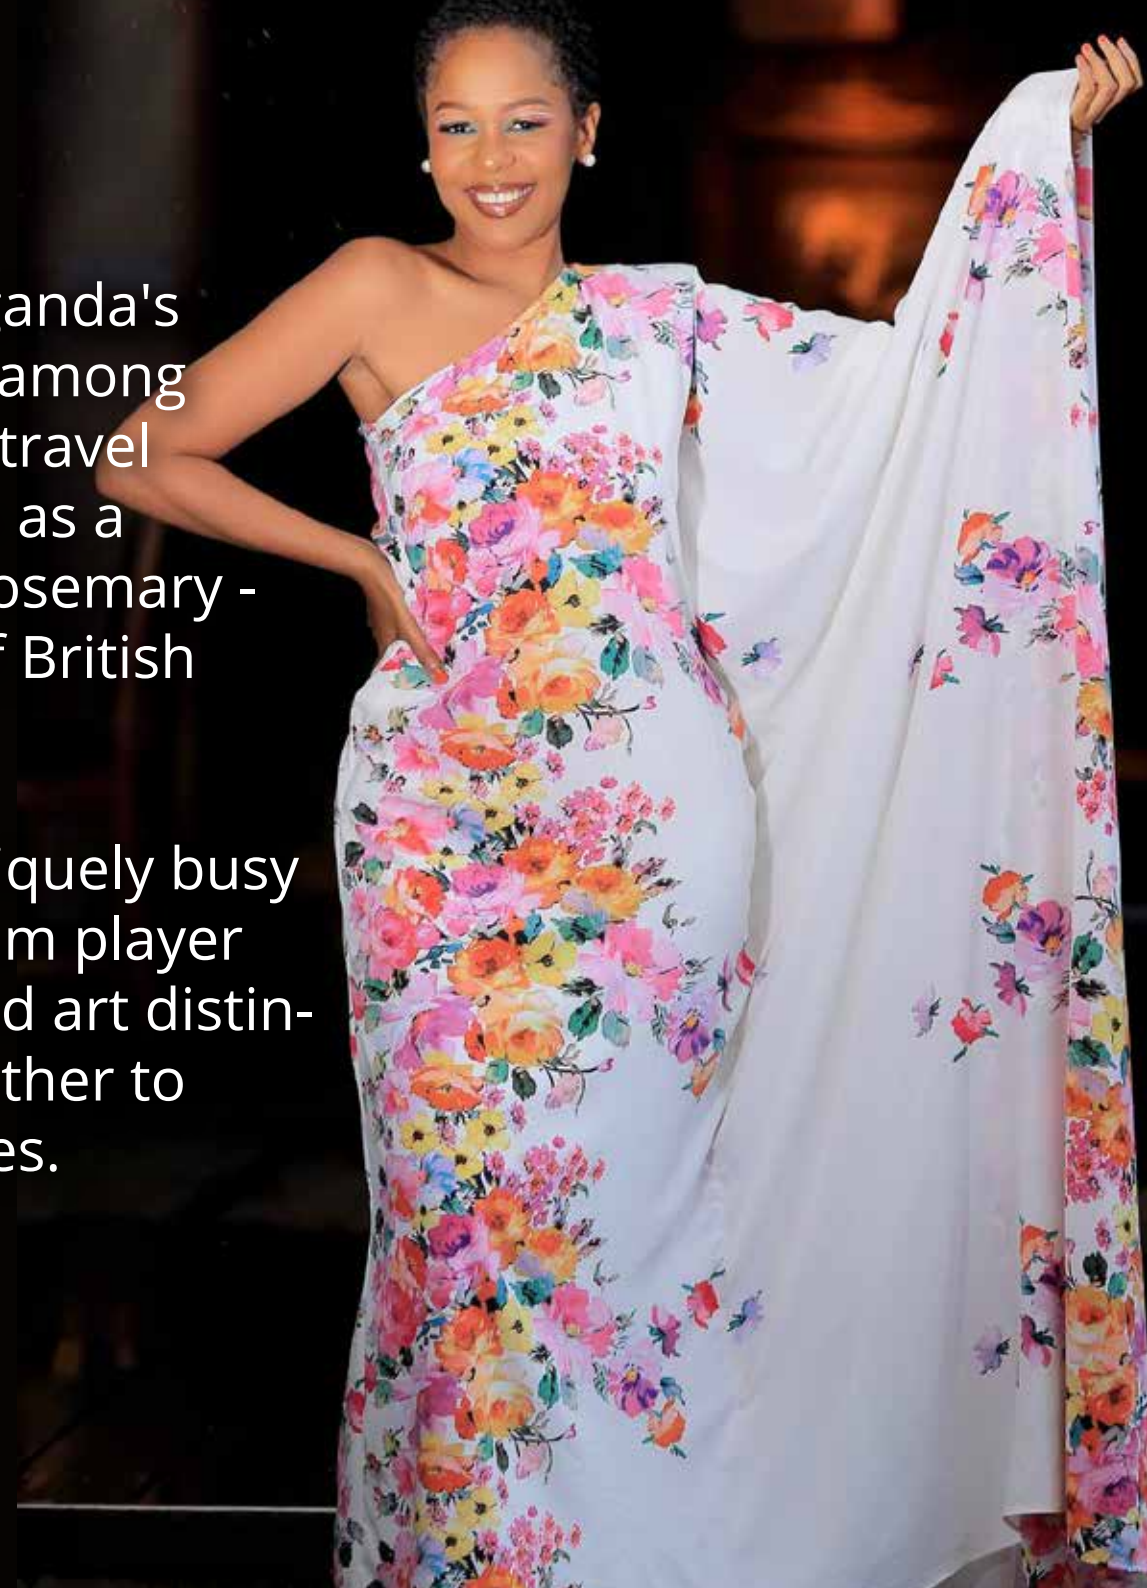

BIOGRAPHY

Sharon O was born in Kampala, Uganda's capital city and is the second born among six siblings. Her father retired as a travel consultant, and her mother retired as a banker. She is a niece to Salmon Rosemary - Miss Uganda of 1967 a Ugandan of British descent.

Her fashionable repertoire as a uniquely busy talented yet supremely tasteful team player for adventurous purposeful-minded art distinguishes her as a top delectable mother to Lisbon Mulindwa wherever she goes.

Sharon O

A CAREER IN MUSIC AND ACTING

In 2005, she made her public debut as a founding member of the Obsessions, a teenage singing and dancing pop group that took East Africa by storm with four record albums.

Obsessions swept regional support with Sharon O as the lead singer and brand face after hit songs like Pollination (featuring Radio and Weasel), Jangu, Nod Your Head, Dance With Me, You And Me, Feel Me, Bagala Twawula, Begonza, Feel Me, Shake Yo Booty (ft. Bebe Cool), Mwekutte, I Will Do (ft. Mr. Mosh)

Since 2005, The National Theatre has hosted several classical theater productions, including "Heart of a Dancer," "Legend of the Scepter," "Queen of Sheba," "Before Adam & Eve," "Return to Innocence," and "Spirit of the Sun." These productions won them theater box office records in sales because they were professionally impactful and unique compared to other theaters in Uganda at the time, thus their popularity.

After hopping from one audition to the next, the movie paradigm became the next step in her quest for quality purpose. Sharon O is best known for her role as Kirabo in Season 3 of Sanyu, which airs on DSTV's Pearl Magic TV Channel 148 and Destiny by Black King Productions.

BIG BROTHER AFRICA

She represented Uganda in Johannesburg, South Africa, alongside Malawi, Zimbabwe, Nigeria, and Ethiopia, during the sixth season of the Big Brother Amplified show in South Africa, where she finished fifth in 2011.
